

We are Lyn and Steve, a couple from Perth, Western Australia with an appetite to see the world. As travel writers and creators of A Hole in my Shoe we explore the markets, gardens and restaurants of the world and share our experiences to inspire our readers to make armchair travel a reality.

We engage our readers with reviews, travel tips and information on culture, tradition and cuisine to increase your brand presence and engage with your customers on a personal level through social media.

A Hole in my Shoe's Facebook page was created in January 2014 and quickly built rapport with the support of over 1000 organic fans within the first month. In March 2014 our travel website was launched and today continues to increase in both reach and interaction.

We have the ability to target, capture and speak to an audience, introducing our readers to new destinations, products and events.
